

Huaxia South Chinese School Weekly News
Nov 4, 2009

1. We have Chinese School on this Saturday.
2. YCT (Youth Chinese Test) will be held at our school on Nov. 14, and the test will start at 10:30 AM and it will take about 50 minutes. YCT is a standard Chinese test set by Hanban of China. So far, we have 103 students registered for the test. The students taking the test shall bring 2B pencils and erasers. The test has multi-choice questions and the answer shall be marked with pencils.
3. Starting from next year, Hanban of China will charge a test fee for YCT (so far, they only charge $10 registration fee), and we don't know how much it will be. The New York Test Center extended our registration deadline by next Monday due to this change. If you want your children to take the opportunity to take YCT this time, please register with the teachers by this Saturday.
4. There will be "Holiday Used Toys Collection" on 11/14 /2009 and 11/21/2009 at PTA desk. Donation receipt is tax deductible and will be given by request from Care2Help (<http://www.care2help.org>).
5. There is a free seminar at room A101, "Apply Natural Luo Han Guo (Sweet) to Replace Sugar (Sweet)" by Yvonne Zhang
6. United Way: In the fall of each year, the United Way conducts its annual fund raising drive. If you want your United Way contributions go to our school, please use the following information:
 - United Way agency code for Huaxia Chinese School: 027931
