

Huaxia South Chinese School Weekly News
Nov 18, 2009

1. Our school directory is ready. We will give each Chinese class student one school directory on this Saturday. For the teachers and other school members who don't have children registered for Chinese classes, you can come to the office to request one. Due to the limited number of the directories left, it will be given based on "first come, first serve".
2. There will be "Holiday Used Toys Collection" on this Saturday again at PTA desk. If you want to donate your used toys, it's the last chance to do it at our school. If you want to have receipts for your donations, please write down your name and address at the PTA desk, and the receipts will be mailed to you. (The information about the receipt on last week news was not correct).
3. On November 15 Marlboro Multi-Cultural Day, both our booth for exhibition and "Qipao Show" for stage performance received very good feedbacks. We thank all the participants for their contributions.
4. We had more than 110 students attended YCT on last Saturday. We hope all the students get good scores. We thank all the parents and teachers for support. Without your support and help, we could not have held such successful test.
5. We welcome all the feedbacks from parents. If you have any complaints and suggestions, please feel free to come to our office or send emails to principal@hxsouth.org.
