

Huaxia South Chinese School Weekly News
May 5, 2010

1. It's time for our school to elect the principal for 2010-2011. The school is everyone's school and everyone has the obligation to serve the school. We encourage all the interested parents to run for the principal. If you have interest to run, please fill in the Nomination Form and email it to election@hxsouth.org by 05/08.
2. The "Used Clothes and Toys Drive" on 04/24 was very successful. We thank all the people who donated the clothes and toys. Please go to the PTA desk to get your receipts on this Saturday (05/08).
3. Our school, Fidelity Chinese school and Monmouth Chinese school are organizing and sponsoring "Marlboro Seniors Fun Day", which will be held on this Saturday (05/08) from 2:00-3:00 PM at Marlboro Recreation center. There will be dancing, singing, riddles and et al. Admission is free and there will be free refreshment and food and gifts. Our school will perform three programs. Welcome all the grandma and grandpa from our school to attend.
4. There will be China visa service on this Saturday (05/08) at our school. Please prepare all the visa documents before you come to school, including the required copies of the documents. The copy machine at the school is not allowed to copy any non-school related materials. The service fee is $10.
5. Our school art teacher, Yunchu Ku, will hold an art exhibit at Monmouth County Headquarters Library from May 4-31, 2010. We encourage the parents and students to go to the exhibit.
6. The 2010 HX Track & Field Games (HXTF2010) will be held on 5/15/2010. We have 16 students register for the games.
Date: Saturday, May 15th, 2010
Address: Montgomery Upper Middle School, 373 Burnt Hill Rd. Skillman, NJ 08558
7. There will be Singing competition for Pre-school classes and PinYin Spelling competition for PinYin classes on 5/22. Please help your children to practice at home.
